

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

In Realms Invisible.

She sleeps within a sheltered marble clove,
Amid her quiet kin of yesterday,
And all the marvel of her beauty's rose,
Has vanished quite away.

Far beneath an alien sky his body lies,
That was so filled with blood of youthful pride,
And all unmarked, unheeded of men's eyes,
Where last he fought and died.

Yet who shall say their spirits held not trials
In realms invisible of Love's delight,
And that, their souls, earth-freed, clung not and kissed,
Beneath the moon to-night?

—Jessie Storms Ferris in Everybody's Magazine.

Interesting Engagement.

The announcement of the engagement of Mr. Matthew C. Armstrong, of Hampton, Va., to Miss Grace Taylor, daughter of a colonel Charles H. Taylor, editor and proprietor of the Boston Globe, a leading New England daily, is at present, interesting society in Boston and Virginia.

The wedding is to take place next November. Miss Taylor is a young woman who possesses an extremely winning and gracious personality, being a brunette type of beauty, tall, and with rich coloring.

Mr. Armstrong is one of the best known young men in his section of the State. He is a son of the late General S. L. Armstrong. The announcement was made at a stag dinner, given in the Armstrong home across Hampton Creek, on Saturday evening last. Those present at the dinner, when the announcement was made, were Messrs. H. R. Booker, Louis Hefflinger, J. A. Massey, Alexander Levy, Dr. Samuel Holston, Dr. H. D. Howe and Mr. Hopkins.

Entertained at Dinner.

Miss Katherine Yonge, of Richmond, who has been visiting Miss Old in Norfolk, was a guest of honor at a dinner given at the Naval Hospital by Dr. Rottenganger and Dr. Foster on Tuesday evening.

Covers were laid for five, those present being: Miss Yonge, Miss Margaret Old, Dr. Edward Old, Dr. Foster and Dr. Rottenganger.

Visited Mrs. Newton.

Mrs. John B. Newton, of No. 1008 Floyd Avenue, had the pleasure of a visit, Tuesday, from several members of her family, including Mr. and Mrs. John B. Newton and family, Mr. O. B. Newton and Mr. W. Loughborough Newton.

Mr. John B. Newton's family came in his private car from Bristol, Va. They left Wednesday morning to spend some time at a resort on the coast of New Jersey. Mr. C. M. Newton has recently spent two weeks in Richmond, but left before the arrival of his brothers, else there would have been for a day almost a complete family reunion.

Anti-Nuptial Reception.

Miss Blanche Pile, of Bristol, Va., gave a reception at her home on Broad Street, that city, Tuesday evening, to her bridal party.

The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Miss Pile was gowned in cream and silk. The list of guests, in honor and bridesmaids, were in white. About thirty-five guests were present, the color scheme in pink and white being prettily carried out in the refreshments.

Miss Pile was married to Mr. James Walter Wright, president of the Traders' and Merchants' Bank at Mountain City, in the State Street Methodist Church, of Bristol, Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the wedding being one of the most important social happenings of the season.

Schwartz—Granger.

The marriage of Miss Madeline Cullen Granger, daughter of Mr. J. M. and Mrs. A. V. Granger, of Mr. Charles David Schwartz, son of Mr. Jacob Schwartz, will be celebrated at 6 P. M. to-day in St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. Father McKeefrey.

Miss Isabel Davis will be maid of honor to her cousin, the bride, and Mr. John Schwartz, brother of the groom, will officiate as best man. The list of ushers will include Mr. Charles Houchins, Mr. H. P. Ford, Mr. G. Langley and Mr. H. Kaufman.

A reception will be given after the ceremony in the home of the bride, No. 714 North Twenty-third Street.

Launch Party.

Miss Patrick Henry Morgan and the Misses Shaw, of Shawboro, North Carolina, who have recently been entertained by the Misses E. D. and E. W. Newton, of Virginia, at their home, "Lyman Carroll," were given a launch party last Saturday evening by Mr. Joe Neville, of Portsmouth, Va. The cruise around the harbor on the "Navajo" was greatly enjoyed by host and guests alike.

Camp on the Potomac.

A party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. L. DeW. Gerthardt, of Martinsburg, W. Va., is occupying the Wetumka Club house at Falling Waters, on the Potomac. The party are thoroughly enjoying camp life. Among those in camp are Misses May Fanning, of Boston; Mary Ralph, of Baltimore; Mary Jackson Barr, of Winchester; Nancy K. Dovel, of Luray; Cora Swartz, of Gettysburg; Messrs. W. G. Clayland and W. P. Davis, Ralph, of Baltimore; John McMahon and Dennis O'Brien, of Washington; A. J. W. Hutton and W. O. Nicklas, of Chambersburg, and the usual contingent from Martinsburg.

Keyser—Whitridge.

The following announcement, appearing in the Baltimore American of yesterday, will be read with interest. It says:

The engagement of Miss Ethel Howard Whitridge to Mr. W. Irvine Keyser has just been announced. The prospective bride and groom are very well known in social circles throughout the country, and the wedding will be one of the most important functions of the coming season.

Miss Whitridge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whitridge, whose country place is Glencairn, in the Green Spring Valley. She is a niece of Mrs. T. Harrison Garrett, and is also well connected on her father's side. She made her debut at the E. H. Hunt Club, the Green Spring Valley Hunt Club, the Baltimore Club and the Bachelors' Cotillion Club. He is a nephew of the late William Keyser, and, on his mother's side, is a descendant of John Augustine Washington, a brother of George Washington. He is, along this Store Closes 5 P. M.; Saturday, 6 P. M.

25c to 50c Handkerchiefs, 9c

Again, this fine line of Handkerchiefs has come from Belfast, Ireland. It is the annual accumulations of the largest manufacturer there, and amounts to several hundred dozens.

There are 300 dozen Women's Sheer Pure Linen Mourning Border Handkerchiefs, that sell usually for 25c to 50c, for 9c each or $1 a dozen.

Men's 25c Handkerchiefs, 12 1-2c. All pure linen, with a neat printed border, 1-4 inch hems.

Many other similar bargains.

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Elliot Norton.

No. 551.

NIGHT.

By WILLIAM BLAKE.

The autograph, portrait and biographical sketch of Blake have already appeared in this series.

THE sun descending in the west,
The evening star does shine;
The birds are silent in their nest,
And I must seek for mine.

The moon, like a flower
In heaven's high bower,
With silent delight
Sits and smiles on the night.

Farewell, green fields and happy grove,
Where flocks have taken delight;
Where lambs have nibbled, silent move
The feet of angels bright:
Unseen they pour blessing,
And joy without ceasing,
On each bud and blossom,
On each sleeping bosom.

They look in every thoughtless nest,
Where birds are covered warm;
They visit caves of every beast,
To keep them all from harm.
If they see any weeping
That should have been sleeping,
They pour sleep on their head,
And sit down by their bed.

When wolves and tigers howl for prey
They plying stand and weep,
Seeking to drive their thirst away,
And keep them from the sheep.
But if they rush dreadful
The angels most heedful
Receive each mild spirit
New worlds to inherit.

And there the lion's ruddy eyes
Shall flow with tears of gold;
And pitying the tender cries,
And walking round the fold,
Saying: Wrath by His meekness,
And by His health sickness,
Are driven away
From our immortal day.

And now beside thee, bleating lamb,
I can lie down and sleep,
Or think on Him who bore thy name,
Gaze after thee, and weep,
For, washed in life's river,
My bright mane for ever
Shall shine like the gold,
As I guard o'er the fold.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

line, related to many prominent Virginia families.

Salute to Be Fired.

Many Richmond visitors from Buckroe, Virginia Beach and other adjacent points will gather at Fort Monroe to-day to await the arrival of Rear Admiral Sigsbee's cruiser squadron, bringing back to America the body of John Paul Jones, and to hear the salute that will be fired from the fort in honor of the hero of the Bon-Homme Richard.

The cruiser fleet is composed of the flagship Brooklyn and the cruisers Galveston, Tacoma and Chattanooga. At the Cape Fear Admiral Evans's battleship squadron, including the flagship Maine, the Kearsarge, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois, Alabama, Iowa and Massachusetts, and an additional cruiser fleet under Admiral Brownson, consisting of the cruisers West Virginia, flagship; and the cruisers Maryland, Pennsylvania and Colorado, will join Admiral Sigsbee's squadron, thus forming one of the most powerful fleets of warships ever seen in Chesapeake Bay, and one that will be well worth going to Fort Monroe to inspect, aside from the patriotic impulse inclining all Virginia women to pay a passing tribute by their presence to the memory of John Paul Jones.

Virginia Degree Women.

Miss Martha P. McGavock, of Max Meadows, Va., an A. M. of the Lynchburg Randolph-Macon Woman's College, and a Ph. B. of the University of Chicago, will have charge of the chair of mathematics and science in Sullivan College, Bristol, Va., next year. Miss McGavock tutored for some years in Randolph-Macon College and, for the past six years, has been at the head of the mathematical department at Blackstone Institute.

Personal Mention.

Major and Mrs. Thomas Pinckney and Miss Josephine Pinckney, of Charleston, South Carolina, sailed by the Cedric from New York, this week, for Europe.

Miss Lucile Carlton has returned from a month's visit to the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Bette M. Johnson, of Concord, North Carolina, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. K. B. Werne, on West Main Street.

A Lynchburg Virginia party, who have recently returned from an enjoyable trip to the Peaks of Otter, was composed of Mrs. Sue D. Fenster, of Micanopy, Fla.; Miss Lucy H. Ford and Miss Annie Howard, of Lynchburg; Mr. Camillus Yulle, Mr. Holcomb Payne, and Mr. Kink T. Ford.

Madame and Miss Guillaume will leave Wednesday, to spend some weeks at Warner Hall, Gloucester county.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, of Charlottesville, have returned from a trip to the Pacific coast. While away they visited the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and all points of interest on the coast.

Mrs. W. H. Parke, Master Willard Parke, Miss Mattie Jennings, Hiram Anderson and Miss Elsie Anderson of Richmond, are spending the summer in Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt are the guests of Mr. F. P. McCready in Chilhowie, Va.

Miss Rose Brown, of this city, was one of a crowd of young people who went from Portsmouth to Virginia Beach, and enjoyed a dance there Monday evening.

Mrs. James A. Moncure and family, who are spending the summer at the Cold Sulphur Springs, will be joined there in August by Mrs. Herbert Gray, Mrs. Moncure's mother.

The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, in giving their lawn party at the Soldiers' Home, Friday evening, June 21st, will not be alone in celebrating the anniversary of the Battle of Manassas, for on July 21st the survivors of the Seventh and Eighth Georgia Regiments will hold a reunion on the battlefield. On the night of the 21st they will be given a banquet at the Prince William Hotel by the ladies of the Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and on the 22nd a banquet will be given on the battlefield. Representatives from many of the Confederate camps and chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of the State will be invited to meet the Georgia regiments at Manassas.

In Richmond the ladies of the Soldiers' Home committee and those of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association are trying hard to give their lawn party a success. To this end they ask the cooperation of every member of the Richmond Chapter and their friends.

Miss Mary Custer Lee is ill with what is thought to be typhoid fever, in her home, her father, Captain D. M. Lee, of Stafford, Va. Miss Lee's brother, Mr.

S. Smith Lee, who has been very ill with fever, is improving.

The annual reunion of the Copp family in Virginia will be held to-day at Willow Brook, the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Copp, of Kettletown, Va.

Colonel Thomas J. Clark, who has severed his official connection with the University of Virginia, is spending the summer at the Greenbrier White Sulphur with his daughter, Mrs. Robert E. Lee.

Master James Burke is visiting Francis Hazel at Roanoke.

Mrs. Thomas McNeil and children have returned from a visit to Mr. P. I. Clark, of Newport, Nova.

Mrs. John W. Finch and daughter are at home, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Doyle, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. C. M. Small and children are guests of Mrs. J. Pace Chapman, of Faber's, Va.

Mrs. E. S. Moncure is visiting friends in Charlottesville and at the University of Virginia.

Miss Mary Travers is in Richmond, after a pleasant stay with Mrs. Edward Beholds, of Staunton.

The Lynchburg News of Tuesday says: The party of campers, chaperoned by Mrs. J. Gordon Payne, who last week had to leave their camp near Holcomb Brook, on account of high water, will return to the camp to-day. The members of the party have been very much gratified to learn that their tents and all the property which they abandoned in their hurried flight were not injured by the flood.

Mr. William Garber is spending his vacation with his parents at New Hope, Va.

Miss Evelyn Doggett is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, of Newport News, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Conner, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. George D. Gaines, of No. 214 West Marshall Street, en route to Oregon and California.

Miss Emma Blount and Miss Fannie Nickolls are the guests of Mr. A. H. Blount, of Roanoke, Va.

Mr. A. Polig and sister, Mrs. Ida Tinker, have returned from a visit to Baltimore and other points in Maryland.

A letter received from Dr. Thomas D. Merrick, now in London, reports a pleasant voyage across the Atlantic and agreeable surroundings in London.

Mr. F. Bert Winslow, of Paterson, N. J. is visiting Mr. R. D. Harlow, at No. 413 West Marshall Street.

Miss Caille Warwick Corling has returned from a visit to Mrs. Giles H. Miller, of Lynchburg. She was one of the passengers on the wrecked train near Prospect Tuesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. John G. Trevilian, of South Third Street, left yesterday for San Francisco and Los Angeles. Before returning they will visit Portland, Salt Lake City, Seattle, Denver and Colorado Springs.

Miss Emmie Wherry, of South Third Street, has left for Cumberland county to visit Misses Ada and Nell Gray at their home, "Northfield." Later she will visit Miss Innes Holt at the Yellow Sulphur Springs.

Miss Julia Horne and Ida Catlett, of Fourth Avenue, left yesterday to spend some time visiting friends in Frederickburg, Washington and Baltimore.

Miss Elizabeth Doyle has returned to her home in Lynchburg, Va., after spending several days last week with Mrs. John Devine, of Highland Park.

Miss Claire Shafer, of Third Avenue, left yesterday to visit relatives in North Carolina.

Miss Janie Gaines, of Henrico county, has been visiting Miss Carrie Henkle, of Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. D. K. Walshaw and little son, Barclay, left last Monday to visit relatives in Farmville, Va.

Mrs. Shelton and little son, after spending the past two weeks with relatives in Farmville, have returned to their home near Highland Park.

Miss Ella Rennie, of Fourth Avenue, spent last Saturday with relatives in Amelia county. Miss Sarah Brooks, of Fourth Avenue, is the guest of friends in Farmville.

Mrs. McNeal and little daughter, Virginia, of Newport News, Va., are the guests of Mrs. Devine, of Third Avenue.

Mr. Louis Shafer after spending a week with friends in Farmville, has returned to his home on Third Avenue.

Mrs. W. A. Beard, of Fourth Avenue, who has been quite ill for the past month, is slowly improving.

Workmen are busily engaged adding a new Sunday-school room to Highland Park Church. Mr. Syten continues quite ill at his residence on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. O. Gresham, of Fourth Avenue, left last week for Fluvanna county to visit relatives.

James R. Catton again runs for the house.

A Three Corned Fight With the Honors Nearly Even.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 19.—Mr. James R. Catton, the delegate from Alexandria city and county to the Legislature, to-day announced himself a candidate for re-nomination at the Democratic primary to be held next month.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

Mr. Catton's advent means a triangular fight, in which the other contestants will be Mr. John H. Trimyer, of this city, and John C. E. Boteler, of Alexandria. It is expected that Mr. Catton and Mr. Trimyer will pretty nearly divide honors in this city, but that Mr. Boteler will poll a large vote in the county.

W.B. Summer Corsets

NUFORM CORSETS

are cool. They do not rust. W. B.

are on sale at all dealers.

W. B. Erect Form 938 Stout Model $1.50

W. B. Nuform 404 Made of Balise 1.00

W. B. Erect Form 72 Average Model 1.00

W. B. Nuform 407 Medium Model 1.50

all these styles made in better qualities up to $5 the pair.

WEINGARTEN BROS., Makers, New York.

377-379 Broadway.

ROOT ENTERS OFFICE AND BEGINS WORK

His First Day Devoted to Considering Matters Touching the Venezuelan Question.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, July 19.—Elihu Root, of New York, was sworn in as Secretary of State to-day soon after 10 o'clock. The oath was administered by William McNeil, assistant librarian of the State Department.

Secretary Root devoted the day at the State Department to the consideration of the Venezuelan question. With Solicitor Penfield, Minister Russell, of Venezuela, and William J. Calhoun, recently designated by President Roosevelt to investigate the case of the asphalt claims and concessions, the secretary went over the documents and papers on file in the department with a view of formulating definite instructions to the special commissioner. Commissioner Calhoun will have to gather additional information in Washington and New York before he is fully equipped to perform the mission for which he has been selected.

GAYNOR-GREENE CASE. Entire Fight of Their Counsel One for Delay.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Solicitor-General Hoyt has received a cable message from Donald McJannet, the special Canadian counsel, representing the government in the arbitration proceedings against Greene and Gaynor, saying that their counsel are trying to postpone the proceedings before the privy council of England, but that he hopes to prevent this being done. The government is aware that the entire fight is one of delay, and Mr. McJannet has received fresh instructions to fight every move that means delay in getting the two men into the United States.</